Established 1885

The Winston Churchill Memorial at Westminster.

Women's Fraternities Established at Westminster College

Three years after Westminster College opened its doors to women, sororities were invited to become a part of the Greek system. Kappa Alpha Theta and Kappa Kappa Gamma colonized on the Fulton, MO campus, Labor Day weekend 1981. Chapter installation will be held in February.

Westminster is a liberal arts college steeped in history. Established in 1851, it was the only institution of higher learning in Missouri to remain open throughout the Civil War. Westminster College gained its place in contemporary history, when Winston Churchill, accompanied by President Harry Truman came to the college March 5, 1946 to deliver his famous "Sinews of Peace" speech, an address in which he made famous the phrase, "Iron Curtain."

This speech was later commemorated by the removal of a war-ruined Christopher Wren church in England, and its reconstruction of the Westminster campus, as the Winston Churchill Memorial and Library in the United States. The ancient church crossed the Atlantic and it was Sir Winston's hope that, "It may symbolize in the eyes of English-speaking peoples the ideals of Anglo-American association on which rest, now as before, so many of our hopes for peace for the future of mankind."

The Thetas and Kappas join seven national men's fraternities.

COVER STORY

This campus scene is the Original Columns in front of Westminster Hall. The columns perpetuate the most revered Westminster tradition. The senior honor society the Skulls of Seven, founded in 1898 conducts an orientation ceremony for new students, and again, for those who complete their degree requirements on Graduation Day. Except on these two occasions, Westminster students do not pass through the columns.

Alpha Lambda

The Alpha Lambda chapter is among twenty sororities and 27 fraternities that comprise a strong Greek system at the University of Washington.

Thetas at the "U" are by tradition proud of our chapter and our well-maintained and attractive chapter house. This fall we returned to a newly redecorated sitting room, date room and dining room. The transition from color to more neutral tones is welcome, and a sign of the changing times.

Washington Thetas keep up with social and philanthropic activities while maintaining an impressive scholarship record. The chapter GPA this past year was 3.2, well above the University average and ranking among the top in the all-sorority average. Much of this success we attribute to an active and enthusiastic scholarship committee.

When it comes to sports we are active and successful in team sports, playing with men's groups in the co-rec league. The Beta/Theta soccer team has a three year co-recreational championship. Basketball and co-rec football are also among our favorite sports. We have lots of backing from those who don't play—our spectator participants.

We are proud of our successful philanthropic projects such as annual participation in a dance-a-thon benefiting muscular dystrophy and the Greek walk-a-lot for the March of Dimes. Last year we held our first childrens' Christmas party. Theta mothers and grandmothers brought small children to the chapterhouse for two hours of entertainment, including a magic show and lots of singing. Proceeds from admission went to the Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation.

Alpha Lambda Thetas are very involved with Seattle alumnae, sharing responsibilities for Founders' Day and forming friendships through an active Auntie Mame program.

Alpha Lambda has contributed three Grand Vice-Presidents to the Fraternity. Vera McIntosh Bemis was Grand Vice-President 1924-28. Jane Brokaw Gallup served as Grand Vice-President, College (1970-74) and Omah Albaugh Klopferstein is presently Grand Vice-President, Alumnae.

Oregon Thetas exuberant over Derby Day success.

*Wilma Wallbridge Arbuckle,
Alpha Xi, Alumnae District
President.*

At the University of Oregon, Alpha Xi houses 64 members, with 30 living out to make Theta a strong force among the twelve sororities on campus.

The chapter has done well in Greek activities. In 1979-80 we placed first in both Sigma Chi Derby Days and Greek Week, and this past year we placed second in Derby Days and third in Greek Week.

In the area of service, our chapter is very active. Last convention we were awarded first place in service. Each year, we participate in an Easter party for foster children, trick-or-treat for Unicef, collect food for the needy, and donate money to Shriner's Hospital for Handicapped children.

Thetas compete on teams such as soccer, tennis, track, golf and swimming. We also participate in university activities—Intercollegiate Athletic Committee, and the Student University Affairs Board.

Alpha Xi is proud of the contributions of its members to national leadership. Marie Davis Thompson served as Grand Treasurer 1922-26. Charlie Fenton Clarke was Grand Alumnae Secretary 1942-48, and later headed the Friendship Fund and the Magazine Agency. Jane Campbell Krohn was Grand Vice-President, Service from 1962-66; and Florence Buck Fuller was a Member-at-Large on Grand Council from 1964-66.

Kappa Alpha Theta was one of the three original national women's fraternities founded in 1917 at Oregon State University. Since then, the Greek system has grown to become very active and influential. Today, Theta's Beta Epsilon chapter is one of the largest and strongest sororities on the campus.

The 110 members of Beta Epsilon are involved in a variety of activities. Within the Greek system, several members are involved with Panhellenic, Greek Week and the Greek Council. Individual Thetas hold responsibilities with student government, yearbook, rally and a variety of honoraries.

The chapter contributes to many of the campus activities. I.F.C. Sing (a song-dance competition sponsored by the Interfraternity Council during Mom's Weekend), and the Mary's Peak Marathon (a relay race to the top of the highest point along the coastal mountain range) are annual events. Thetas also take part in OSU's competitive intra-mural program—flag football and softball.

We are all working together to make our house a fine place to live, and our chapter a place where friendship and leadership can be developed.

Delta Iota

Seward Hall, home for Thetas at the University of Puget Sound in Tacoma.

Delta Iota at the University of Puget Sound in Tacoma, Washington is the youngest chapter in District XIV. We were installed in 1963. We are a chapter of unique, fun-loving and involved young women. Our student body numbers 2800 and Delta Iota has 69 members. Although we live in a dorm instead of a chapter house, we are a strong, unified group, pursuing a multitude of interests and activities.

Whether it's an honorary such as Mortar Board, a service group like Spurs, a business fraternity or the Adelpians, a choir group, Delta Iota Thetas are participating. We are members of many Associated Students of UPS committees and our cheerful faces appear on the myriad of university boards.

Delta Iota's chapter room, located in the Student Union Building, is a multi-purpose room, maintained by the chapter house corporation and used for everything from rush parties to studying or baking cookies on a rainy Saturday, to a pledge class slumber party. It is just a short walk from Seward Hall where we live, and we all consider it a home away from home.

We have strong ties to the Tacoma Alumnae Chapter. We are individuals and achievers. We are Kappa Alpha Theta.

What Every Theta Should Know

Do you know how Grand Council is chosen, the possible length of service and the qualifications needed by Council members? If not, read on.

I. The election of the Theta Grand Council.

A. Who chooses Theta's national officers?

1. All members, alumnae chapters and college chapters may recommend possible nominees to the Nominating Committee.
2. The Winter Bulletin will include a request from the chairman for nominations.
3. A letter will be sent by the chairman, spring 1982 to each college and alumnae chapter, inviting recommendations.
4. A similar letter will be sent to each district and national officer with recommendation blank enclosed.
5. Letters of recommendation from individual Thetas are also welcome.
6. Each district officer and each member of the present council is asked to recommend to the chairman what she considers an ideal slate of new officers.
7. The chairman will acknowledge all recommendations received.

B. The Selection of the Nominating Committee.

1. The nominating committee is selected after the opening session of Grand Convention. Each district elects one of its delegates to serve on the committee. One half of the committee members are alumnae delegates and the other half college delegates.

C. How the Nominating Committee Functions.

1. The committee studies the responsibilities of each office.
2. The committee studies and evaluates the qualifications of each candidate recommended for each office.
3. The committee then prepares a slate of officers to present to Grand Convention for approval, after having first notified each candidate of her nomination to confirm her willingness to serve if elected.
 - a. Further nominations may be made from the floor by any delegate.

D. Every delegate votes by secret written ballot.

II. How long may members of Grand Council serve?

- A. The Constitution states that all officers and members-at-large shall be elected at Grand Convention.
- B. Terms are for two years.
- C. No one may serve more than three terms as a member-at-large, followed by two terms as a grand vice-president, then two terms as grand president.
- D. No member of council may regress in office.

III. What does Grand Council do?

- A. Council responsibility is divided among committees. Members must be able to develop, implement, and administer programs in their field of alumnae, college, finance, service or administration. Council also plans convention. A council member must be an active contributor to the total welfare of Kappa Alpha Theta.
- B. Council meetings are held twice a year and last about a week, with additional meetings at Grand Convention and Leadership Conference.
- C. Each member travels outside her home district twice a year to visit college and alumnae chapters.
- D. She attends district convention(s) as a representative of Grand Council.
- E. She attends and participates in the programs of Grand Convention and Leadership Conference.
- F. She will be called upon by the grand president to accept special assignments—assist with extension and/or the installation of new chapters, to represent the fraternity at inter-fraternity or educational meetings, and to make infrequent visits to additional chapters.

IV. Qualifications of Grand Council Members.

- A. A college degree.
- B. Nothing in our laws requires experience as a district officer. However, because district presidents have a broad background of fraternity knowledge and experience, almost all Council members are drawn from among those who have been district presidents.
- C. Her family must be able and willing to share her with the fraternity.
- D. She should be able to type, must respect deadlines, dependably accomplish jobs she agrees to do, handle correspondence promptly. For some positions business experience is helpful.
- E. She should be able to speak well before a group, enjoy comfortable rapport with both college and alumnae members, be a representative of the fraternity to whom you can point with pride.
- F. She must have the time available and the commitment to the fraternity to meet her responsibilities as a member of Grand Council.
- G. Although serving on Grand Council is a volunteer position, expenses are paid by the fraternity.

By sending recommendations to the chairman, it is the privilege and the responsibility of alumnae members, college members, and individual Thetas to call the attention of the nominating committee to Thetas who meet these qualifications.

Please send recommendations no later than May 1, 1982 to Mrs. Marvin G. Schmid, 10134 Fieldcrest Drive, Omaha, NE 68114.

RECOMMENDATION FOR GRAND COUNCIL

College chapters, alumnae chapters, alumnae clubs and individual members of Kappa Alpha Theta are eligible to submit recommendations for consideration by the Nominating Committee. One recommendation, endorsed by a college chapter or an alumnae chapter or club, represents all its members. Therefore, recommendations from individual members of those groups are not necessary. Every recommendation will be acknowledged by the Chairman of the Nominating Committee.

A Kappa Alpha Theta biographical form—to be filled out and returned—will be sent by the Chairman of the Nominating Committee to each Theta recommended for Grand Council.

After careful consideration of all recommendations, a slate will be prepared from those names received and will be presented to the Grand Convention for election.

It's Back Home in Indiana

where Kappa Alpha Theta is building its own headquarters, a building of our own, designed to our own specifications, equipped to handle the myriad of office tasks expected from an up to date business corporation.

In the Beginning

our "headquarters" was in the home of Bettie Locke. 111 years ago all of our records were kept with Alpha chapter and for the first decade the president of Alpha chapter was also the president of the Fraternity.

Our First Central Office

was the outgrowth of the 1938 Grand Convention, which approved a recommendation from a Chicago firm of efficiency experts, leading to the complete reorganization of our administrative setup. Former Grand President, Adelaide McDonald Sinclair, Sigma, was instrumental in seeing that this original office was established, located in downtown Chicago. In 1959 Central Office was moved to Evanston, IL.

Why Change?

Our present lease expires in 1984 and it will be necessary to find new space. The majority of fraternity groups own their own headquarters and as we continue to grow in this "systems" oriented society, it becomes advantageous to own our own building and release us from the mercy of ever increasing rents and space limitations imposed by various landlords.

The Time Is Now

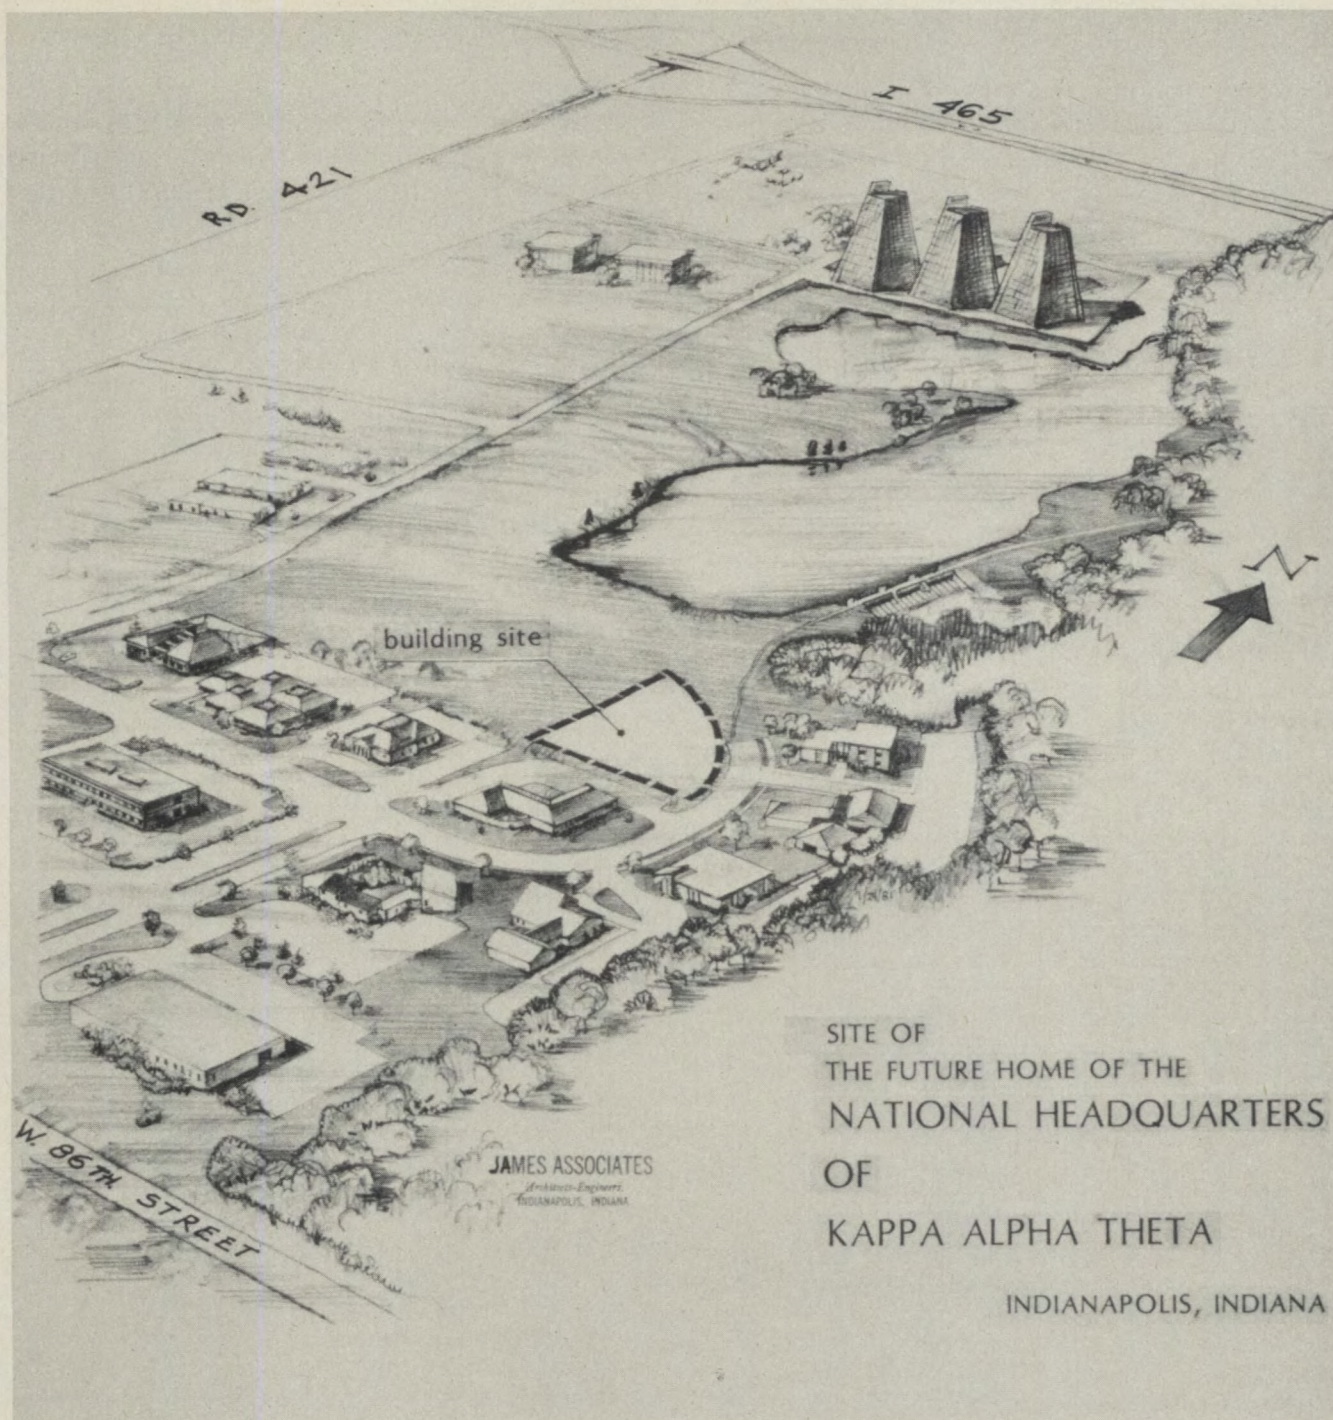

because the Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation is in a position to provide the fraternity with mortgage loans to finance construction, at a lower rate of interest than lending institutions. In addition the Foundation can share in the cost of headquarters facilities.

Indianapolis, Indiana

was selected by the 1978-80 Grand Council after surveying the country. Indianapolis is within 8 hour driving distance of one half the population of the United States. This city has a strong fraternal and educational tradition and provides tax advantages to fraternal groups—i.e. no property tax on the first acre of land and no sales tax for those same groups. The employment situation is favorable and Indianapolis offers a strong heritage of support.

Money Matters

The Headquarters Steering Committee was established jointly by the Fraternity and the Foundation. Our money-raising campaign has started with a Special Gifts solicitation headed by Virginia Speidel Edwards, former Grand President. Her nationwide committee is soliciting large gifts on a personal basis from those members who are blessed with the good things in life which they wish to share in the development of today's young college women and help strengthen the future of the fraternity. These are tax deductible contributions to the Foundation which can be paid over a period of three years. The Special Gifts Committee is hoping to raise $300,000 by Grand Convention 1982 as a kick-off to the larger fund-raising endeavor throughout our entire membership, for it is our hope that every Theta will want to have a part in making this longtime dream—our own Theta Headquarters—come true.

Career in Equine Science

The daughter of a veterinarian, Kelly Apt, has always loved animals. At nineteen she, like Velvet Brown, decided that she wanted to work with horses for the rest of her life. After a year and a half at Albion College, Kelly left Pi chapter, transferring to William Woods College, in Fulton, Missouri, to pursue a degree in Equine Science.

William Woods is one of a few colleges in the nation that offers a program in Equine Science.

Kelly started riding when she was eight. She rode with the Miami Valley Hunt Club when at home in Dayton, Ohio. Participating in horse shows in Ohio, Kentucky and Indiana, Kelly won numerous awards.

At William Woods College, Kelly's courses include stable management, farrier science and biology. She learns to ride all seats, hunt, saddle and stock seat. She also learns dressage.

Kelly competes on the varsity riding team.

A highlight of her education was the opportunity to study in England for four weeks this past spring. Kelly and a group of William Woods students saw the sights of England while also visiting several prominent riding centers. The group spent three weeks in residence at Tall School of Equitation. There, they were able to gain first hand experience in the English riding techniques.

Kelly's sisters at Albion are proud of her accomplishments. They wish her happiness and the best of luck as she pursues her career in Equine Science.

Nuclear Medicine Her Goal

From Delta Nu's small senior class of 11, Nancy Fore graduated from the University of Arkansas with a B.S. degree with an emphasis in zoology.

night to look for salamanders in a nearby stream. These salamanders were the subject of a paper for environmental biology.

This fall Nancy entered the nuclear medicine technology program at the Duke University Medical School. She will study in the Division of Nuclear Medicine in the Department of Radiology of the Duke Medical Center in a year-long program involving laboratory instruction and internship training. Upon completion of the course Nancy will be awarded a certificate entitling her to take the examinations in nuclear medicine technology.

Nuclear medicine is the diagnosing and treatment of a variety of diseases and disorders with the use of radioactive materials which are administered either intravenously or orally.

Nancy Fore chose this field because it is a new field with many possibilities. She hopes to advance beyond the field of technology and develop skills in research. Duke University is noted for its research in this field.

Tammy Oxford is one of the seniors graduating from the University of California at Riverside who is a member of Delta Psi chapter.

Her career goals are directed toward an interest in communications and her post-graduation plans are the first step toward realization of that objective.

Following a summer internship with CBS news, she will continue a career in media. Graduate school and a masters degree in Journalism are her immediate plans. Tammy has a university minor in Womens' Studies and her emphasis in media work will no doubt involve some aspect of this interest.

Georgia Theta Sally Landrum becomes resident counselor.

Georgia

She'll Work for Theta

The Gamma Delta chapter at the University of Georgia, has something to be proud of. One of its members is embarking on a career of the best kind—a career with Theta.

Sally Landrum has accepted the position of resident counselor at Thetas newest chapter, Epsilon Theta at Stetson University in DeLand, Florida.

Sally's responsibilities as resident counselor will be many. She will act as the chapter's adviser and counselor. She will be guiding the new members (who were just initiated in May) through their first rush and their first year as a chapter.

Sally said she sees herself as a liaison between the new chapter and the national organization. "I will be a guider and facilitator more than a teacher."

Sally is excited about meeting new Thetas. A traveling consultant, Lisa Mengel, encouraged Sally to apply for the job. Sally said, "I wanted to take advantage of this opportunity to repay Theta for what she has done for me."

Sally will be pursuing her master's degree in early childhood education while at Stetson. She will also continue her involvement with the YWCA in Florida, giving volunteer programs, teaching leadership camps and giving invitational talks promoting the YWCA as she has done in Georgia.

While in school Sally served as editor, house manager and pledge class treasurer. She was elected model pledge her freshman year.

Sally is excited about the challenge of helping a new chapter start from scratch. If Sally's past record as a Theta is any indication of her potential success at Stetson, Epsilon Theta chapter is in good hands.

Architecture/Historic Preservation

A Gamma Pi Theta chose the field of architecture because she liked both art and science.

Toni Renee Falk graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Architecture from the College of Design at Iowa State University.

Toni said she realized in high school that architecture would be the profession for her.

"It is a good field where both art and science can be combined," Toni said. "It is a profession which utilizes both your hands and your mind."

Toni plans to work for a year before she attends graduate school on the East Coast. She will study historic preservation, the renovation of old structures. Her goal is to find a good job in the field of preservation.

Last fall Toni participated in a foreign study tour sponsored by the Iowa State Department of architecture. Eighteen students traveled around western Europe for 14 weeks, sightseeing and studying architecture. Toni said, "so much of European architecture is older than 200 years. Here in the United States we are confined to architecture of 200 years or less."

While at Gamma Pi, Toni has held the offices of scholarship chairman, assistant pledge chairman and junior Panhellenic representative. Because of her major and the fact that her study time had to be spent out of the chapter house Toni had to find a happy medium between chapter activities and time spent with other Thetas and the demands of her major.

Her hard work and dedication have shown. She is a Phi Kappa Phi with a 3.80 GPA and a member of Tau Sigma Delta honorary.

Theatre Direction in Her Plans

Oliver Hinson of Beta chapter is heading toward a career out of the ordinary. Her ultimate goal is to earn a Master of Fine Arts degree and become a director for the theatre. The steps leading to this goal are many.

Oliver graduated in Theatre and English from Indiana University in August this year. She plans on gaining experience as an actress by acting in community theatres in her home town of Memphis, TN.

With several years experience behind her, Oliver plans on pursuing a Masters at an Eastern school, and then entering the world of professional theatre as a director.

Mississippi

Tennis in Her Future

Lelia Wallender is a Theta name to look for in the future of American tennis . . . the name is already known "down South."

Lelia has become a star athlete at Mississippi. In only eight years of play she is the 39th ranked amateur player in the nation. Beginning at age 10, after tagging along with her mother to the courts, she began to play seriously, and people began to notice. Just two years later Lelia was ranked 16th in her home state of Texas. She has won state recognition for Best Sportsmanship, and she is currently ranked 2nd there.

In her freshman year at Ole Miss, Lelia compiled a 28-2 record and lead her team to win the Southeastern Conference championship, and the state championship in Mississippi. She is a member of the 1981 all-state team.

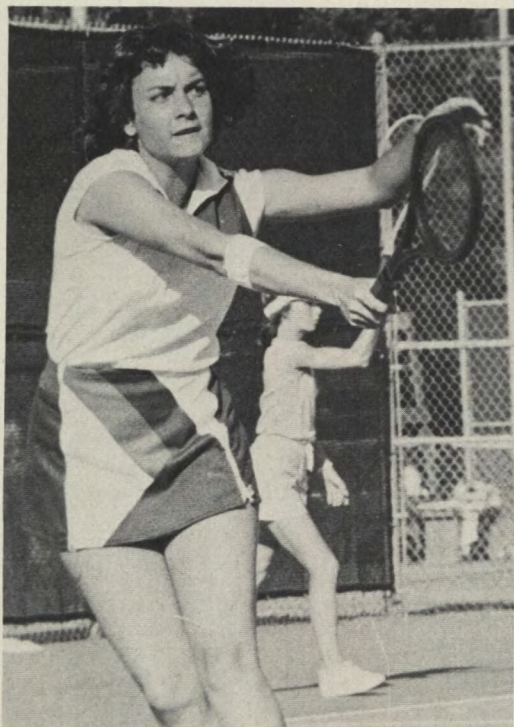

Lelia's coach at Ole Miss, Billy Chadick, commended his prize player, "Lelia Wallender is definitely our most consistent player. She always comes through for us."

Lelia's friendly Tyler, Texas drawl and magnetic charm combined with her aggressive, no-nonsense attitude on the courts make her a constant source of interest to the public. She is counting on her tennis background and her natural way with people to launch a career in public relations. "I'd like to work with a company like AMF-Head, or Wilson, or maybe, on the tennis tour itself."

Here is one Theta folks are going to be hearing about.

Jan Frazier, Gamma Upsilon

Miami-Ohio

Art for Nonverbal Communication

This fall Jan Frazier will be entering the new and most interesting field of art therapy. She will be studying at Emporia State University in Emporia, KS. Art therapy has been in existence only since 1959, so many of us must ask, what does an art therapist do? Jan answered it best when she said, "a psychiatrist uses verbal communication to help his patients and their conflicts whereas an art therapist uses nonverbal communication to help a person understand. The use of symbolism is a diagnostic tool in art therapy, because it helps the patient to discover his hidden anxieties.

Jan is one of only 15 students accepted into this program. She will be working with the well established art therapist Robert Ault and Dept. Chairman of Psychology, Steven Davis, at the Menninger Foundation in Topeka. It is at this psychiatric hospital where she will get her training.

There are two reasons why Jan chose this program. The prestigious team of Ault and Davis, make the Menninger Foundation one of the best in the nation and internationally known. The second reason is their emphasis on student specialization. Jan is interested in Gestalt art therapy, so she will concentrate in that area of psychology.

In Jan's work with mentally retarded adults and hearing impaired children, she has shown her dedication and joy in helping others. But she does have other goals set for her future. She would like to attain a doctorate in psychology and be a psychologist in art therapy. She has also always wanted to help at the Institute of Logopedics in Wichita. The Institute has its own registered art therapist.

North Carolina

She's Already a Sportscaster

"I ought to write a book," said 1981 University of North Carolina graduate Lisa Buster. Lisa is heading for a career in sportscasting and she has already met people that others only read about or watch on television—people like Pete Rose, Lou Brock and Joe Theismann.

Lisa got her first job in sportscasting her freshman year at Georgetown University. She was sports director and producer at WCTB-FM.

Her first assignment was to do a half hour interview with sports personalities. She interviewed athletes from the Washington Bullets, the Washington Redskins and the Washington Capitols. "I was scared to death," Lisa said, recalling her first interview. "I had never met anybody that you read about in the newspapers." She adjusted quickly though. First semester of her sophomore year at Georgetown she was hired by WDVM-TV9. Working Sunday nights during football season, she put together sports scoreboards, listed the important events of the game and went through the wire stories.

Although Lisa was self-conscious about her young age while working among such professionals at TV9, she stressed that she was always equal. "I loved working at TV9," she said. "Almost everybody appreciates somebody who will listen and learn from them."

The summer before transferring to UNC, Lisa worked at two radio stations in Philadelphia, her hometown. She worked as a sports reporter at WUSL-FM, covering the Phillies baseball team. Covering them has been the highlight of her career.

Since coming to Chapel Hill, Lisa has worked at WCHL-AM in Chapter Hill and WCCC-FM in Durham. One day Bobbie Batista, an anchor woman at WRAL-TV and a Theta alumna of Northwestern University, spotted Lisa's Theta jewelry and an instant friendship was formed.

Being a woman sportscaster has posed no real problems for Lisa. The only team that gave her any trouble was the Phillies. Some of them did not like the fact that she could come in the locker room. Still, they would only give interviews there.

"Anytime I've sat down and talked to a player and he has gotten to know me a little bit, I have never had any trouble again," she said. "They know I'm just trying to do my job."

Lisa said she is taken just as seriously by the athletes as a male sportscaster. Her advice to other women pursuing sportscasting careers is to work at it and not get discouraged. "Being in the right place at the right time is important too," she added.

Right, Lisa Buster, sportscaster.

Southern California

Heading Into the World of Business

Ramona Cappello, an Omicron Theta at the University of Southern California, has been selected as the school's co-valedictorian for the class in 1981. She is heading for a career in management consulting.

Majoring in business administration with an emphasis on international marketing, Ramona has maintained a straight 4.0 throughout her four years at USC.

She has participated in the International and Comparative Management Program at USC, which involved traveling to European countries and comparing their business operations with those of the United States.

As a member of Kappa Alpha Theta, she has served as standards chairman, Panhellenic delegate, treasurer and pledge class president. She has been president of Order of Omega, a national honorary of fraternity leaders, and is a member of Mortar Board. She is also a member of Beta Gamma Sigma, Delta Sigma Pi, and the USC Helenes, official hostesses of the school.

Ramona is currently working as an independent contractor for marketing research and is doing consulting work for a medical and dental practice firm.

She will attend either the American Graduate School of International Business, Harvard, or the Institute of Graduate Studies at the University of Geneva, Switzerland.

Career in Piano Performance Beckons

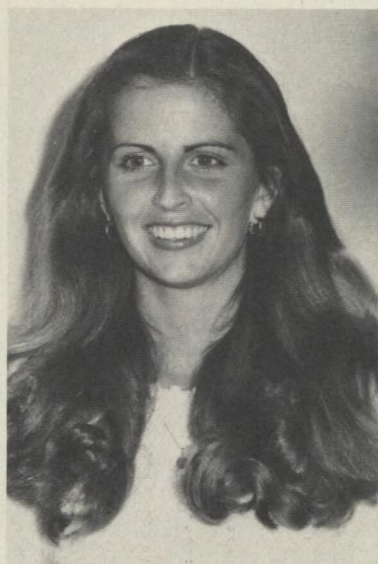

Julie Neal is more than a Who's Who in American Universities, one of the ten Outstanding Seniors at the University of Tulsa, and a Homecoming Queen Candidate; she is also a terrific Theta, with many other activities to spare.

Julie graduated in May with a Bachelor Degree in Music, majoring in piano performance. Her interest in music has given her membership in professional music organizations, music fraternal groups, and university musical groups. She has won many piano awards.

Julie is very dedicated to her major. This is shown by her superb academic achievement, which has placed her in many honor societies.

Julie also held four offices in Gamma Tau chapter. She was song leader, fraternity education chairman, rush chairman, and president.

Julie plans to continue her education to earn a Master's Degree. During her studies, she will serve as a graduate assistant, teach piano courses, and also give private lessons.

Theta Magazine Wants Your Ad

The advertisement shown at left was received camera-ready to run in the winter 1981 issue of the Kappa Alpha Theta Magazine. The new policy of accepting ads from Theta craftswomen has prompted a few marketing-minded members to show their products in the pages of the Magazine.

Individual Theta artisans and alumnae chapters and clubs are encouraged to use their own publication as an advertising medium. This medium reaches a select readership of 83,000.

Our advertising policy is not a money-making undertaking. We charge "break even" rates strictly as a service to our members.

Rates range from $27 a column inch to $125 per quarter page. Half page and full page space is available at proportionally higher rates. The one inch ads cannot be used unless there are enough of them to cover a half page. Due to increase in the costs of paper there will be a slight increase in rates commencing with all ads received after Jan. 1, 1982.

Additional information may be obtained from the editor, Mrs. John C. Gallup, 3502 N.E. 42, Seattle, WA 98105.

"Special people" touch lives of chapter members

ARIZONA

Now obviously one woman couldn't have 122 girls on her own, unless she is of course a sorority house-mother. Mrs. Constance Christian is Beta Delta's house-mother of five years. Mrs. "C" as she is known to her girls was formerly a housemother to a fraternity at Penn State. When she came to Arizona she brought with her experience and knowledge that has guided us through the years.

Mrs. "C" has earned respect from her girls while maintaining friendships and alliances with many. She is also active in the University and takes several courses every semester. Her friendships lie outside the Theta house, too, with of course, who else but other house-mothers. Mrs. Pi Phi and Mrs. Alpha Phi (as she calls them) are frequent lunch guests or can be found in Mrs. "C's" room engaging in a fierce game of cards. Last Christmas we presented Mrs. "C" with the honorary housemothers pin which she wears with pride.

Mrs. Christian's popularity has also reached the community. She was recently feted in an article in the Phoenix Republic, where she divulged some of Beta Delta's favorite recipes.

Some mothers would be distraught with 122 daughters, but Mrs. "C" was born a mother for she loves us all as her own. College memories for Beta Delta's will include homecoming, football games, parties and our mother Mrs. "C."

ARIZONA STATE

1981 has been a very exciting and event-filled year for Arizona State Thetas. There are many people outside the chapter who have meant a great deal to the members, but one person stands out: Eric Lyberg, Honorary Theta Man. Eric entered Delta Epsilon's life when his sister, chapter member Kristen Lyberg, was tragically killed. It was a very hard time for all, but Eric seemed to be a bright ray of hope and offered great insight to the value of life. Since, Eric has attended many functions of Delta Epsilon such as Greek Sing, and Spring Formal, while Delta Epsilon members have done a lot with Eric such as movies, pizza and ball games. Though Eric lost one sister, he acquired 80 others who care about him a great deal.

BALL STATE

A woman who always makes the Delta Sigma chapter members smile is Mariam Moore Morrison.

Mrs. Morrison was born in Orestes, IN, which she calls a "funny little town." In 1911 her family moved to Muncie. She was initiated into Alpha Chi chapter at Purdue. In 1928 she married the late Raymond Morrison, a founder of Sigma Nu fraternity at Miami University. As a young housewife and alumna, Mrs. Morrison formed the Muncie Alumnae Club in 1928, and it is still active today.

Sororities were in existence at Ball State and in 1967, a social sorority, Kappa Theta Rho was formed, hoping to become Kappa Alpha Theta. The local held pledge meetings at Mrs. Morrison's home. Many festivities such as alumnae dinners and faculty teas were also held at the Morrison home. When Kappa Theta Rho received word in 1970 that they were to become the "Centennial" chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta, it was Mrs. Morrison's dream come true.

Mariam Morrison was the first president of Delta Sigma House Corporation and she has been an active member of the advisory board. She lives close to the campus and each year she has the pledges for tea and traces the roots of Delta Sigma chapter. She always serves her delicious brownies which everyone refers to as "Theta Delight."

"The girls do more for me than I do for them," Mariam Morrison says. Delta Sigma members take the place of family as her only son lives in St. Louis.

Mrs. Morrison is a perfect example for us to follow. She is a warm, sincere and generous woman. She received her fifty year pin in 1976. We think she is a living example of Theta for a lifetime.

BAYLOR

The man is Dr. Frank Karaffa. But he's no ordinary man. Not to the hundreds of collegiate women he has served as faculty sponsor of Epsilon Epsilon chapter at Baylor University.

Dr. Karaffa's dedication and support helped Epsilon Epsilon colonize at Baylor five years ago. Before the chapter became a Theta colony, he served as sponsor of Delta Alpha Pi, the local club which became EE for twelve years.

Dr. Karaffa is special to each member and pledge in the chapter. When pledges go to meet him for the first time, members who know tell the pledges to plan on staying awhile because Dr. Karaffa loves to talk to "his girls."

Dr. Karaffa is Director of Men's Physical Education at Baylor and considered a shining light in the P.E. department. A smiling man, he always has a good word for everyone around him and a manner that makes his presence welcome. He's always ready and willing to help the Thetas. He has even proved to be a good rusher. During last rush he spotted a girl he thought was just wonderful. "I tell you, she's terrific," he told the chapter. That was all he had to say.

Dr. Karaffa's wife Gene, a Theta who served with him as sponsor through the years, died at the end of fall semester last year. He continues to serve as faculty adviser to Thetas at Baylor. Through his wisdom and guidance he has helped the chapter attain many goals. The Thetas of Epsilon Epsilon are grateful for his continuing love and support.

U.C.L.A.

There are very few people as dear as Mrs. Long, our housemother at U.C.L.A. 1981 marks Mrs. Long's tenth year with the Beta Xi chapter, and there seems no more appropriate time to acknowledge this very special woman.

From the first time a rushee meets her at the front door, until the last time a graduating senior says goodbye, Mrs. Long's kindness and concern generously abound. In fact, many of our members claim Mrs. Long as one of the reasons for their pledging Theta.

Mrs. Long is not simply a housemother. She is not only our chaperone, our reprimander, our "mom." Mrs. Long is our wise mentor. She is the chapter's pillar of strength and source of pleasure. We are reminded of Mrs. Long's wisdom each time she speaks at a special event. At this year's institution luncheon, Mrs. Long recited one of her favorite poems.

Ruby Long's much treasured presence is the center of strength for our chapter. We demonstrate our respect and admiration through a tradition unique to U.C.L.A. sororities: Mrs. Long is honored once a quarter with a special Monday night dinner, cards and small gifts from the girls, and a song written especially for her.

Each new pledge knows that Mrs. Long's room is a friendly retreat for discussing school, friends, failures, successes, careers, etc. She is kind and considerate, honest and concerned. We are proud of her each time we introduce her to peers or parents, when we see her in Westwood window shopping, when she greets rushees.

Truly there are very few people as special as Mrs. Long. Her wisdom, her respectability and her pleasurable poetry are only a hint of the myriad attributes that make her such an extraordinary asset to our chapter. Mrs. Long has created a tradition for which she will be loved by Thetas, for a lifetime.

CALIFORNIA-SANTA BARBARA

Quiet and yet determined, constantly striving Maggie Kellogg is perhaps the most dedicated, special individual Gamma Rho knows. Originally a member of Alpha Theta Chi, a local sorority at Santa Barbara, Mrs. Kellogg and her collegiate sisters petitioned to establish the Theta chapter in 1950 in which each Gamma Rho member takes pride today. Since Gamma Rho's earliest days, Maggie Kellogg has flown her kite highest. She is our chapter adviser, our right arm, our companion. Whether pouring coffee during a Parents' Weekend brunch, or lending a shoulder to cry on, she is the sister who outshines them all.

Maggie Kellogg
"Special" T P

For Gamma Rho, Maggie Kellogg embodies strength, spunk, warmth and love. As pledge adviser she helped us through our excitement and uncertainty. As advisory board chairman, she has established excellent contact between alumnae and collegians, promoted chapter unity and worked with Gamma Rho's officers on an individual basis, helping us to grow and reach our goals.

Referring to our chapter, Mrs. Kellogg once said, "One rose is beautiful, but a bunch of roses is even more beautiful." We are all so proud of Maggie. She is our pansy, she is our rose.

Stephanie Ann Hall

CONNECTICUT

At Gamma Zeta, we have a very special couple who adds a family touch to life at the Theta house. Ebba and Henry Hanson live a couple of miles away from our house in rural Storrs, CT, and have helped us in every way from hanging pictures to securing a fire ladder from our second story—which Mr. Hanson tested himself when a not-so-brave Theta declined the invitation to leap out the window to test it.

Ebba Hanson has been a special part of Theta ever since Gamma Zeta was a local sorority called Gamma Sigma. When she and her husband were away for his military duty, the chapter became affiliated with Kappa Alpha Theta. Ebba Hanson was initiated when she returned to Storrs with her husband. Today Mrs. Hanson is a member of our enthusiastic, hard-working corporation board where she works closely with the house operation.

The little things they do is what makes the Hansons special to us. Mr. Hanson makes wooden kites to give to our little sisters and he made beautiful wooden benches for our chapter room. They help us with plants, furniture and decorating as well as fixing and installing things for the house. They even changed the matting of our pansy picture in the entrance way from blue to green when we got green carpeting.

The Hansons are active in the Storrs community but they always take the time to help us. When Gamma Zeta left the campus in 1971, the Hansons stored all of our chapter supplies until we were re-installed in 1979. They have given family-like support to our former resident counselors who have come from afar and have made them feel at home in Storrs. They set a fine example of what it is to have Theta spirit for a lifetime.

DUKE

At Beta Rho our special person is a group of people. For several years, our chapter has held a round robin tennis tournament called the Theta Classic, to benefit our local philanthropy Meals on Wheels. This program provides a hot meal at lunchtime for needy people in Durham. This past year our philanthropy chairman decided to get us more involved with this group. As a chapter, we agreed to do a route every Thursday. Thetas paired off to take turns delivering meals to the less fortunate and shut-ins. It is this group of people who have brought a special sparkle into the lives of Duke Thetas.

The route serves 10-12 people and it takes less than an hour to complete. Every member volunteering for the route gains a deep appreciation for all she has. Many of the recipients are invalids living alone, and all have become detached from the community. We stay and chat because for many of them we are the link to the outside world, sometimes the only other people they see all day.

Many of these people have that special pride and optimism. Others truly need a boost, a reminder of youth and a caring friend. As sisters we have found not only a person but a whole group of people, who remind us of how lucky we are, and enable us to give something of ourselves to them.

"Every mother would love to have her as a daughter and every student would love to have her as a friend," said Patty Grabinski, rush adviser to Beta Omicron.

R.A. Patti Grabinski has had the opportunity to work very closely with Julie Cheslik during her term as rush chairman and currently as chapter president.

Theta housemother Dorothy Moeller expressed respect for Julie's academic excellence, leadership capabilities and personable manner.

"There is no doubt in my mind that Julie is going all the way to the top," Mrs. Moeller said.

Julie has maintained a cumulative 4.0 average throughout her college career. A communications major and political science minor, she is a member of Phi Eta Sigma, Omicron Delta Kappa, Mortar Board and Phi Beta Kappa.

Having been on the Dean's List every semester, Julie is in the University Honors Program and is now working on her communications honors project dealing with the First Amendment and mass media free press/fair trial issue.

Julie Cheslik was the recipient of the Molly Kerrigan-Fix Des Moines Alumnae Scholarship, and the Helen Reich IFC-Panhellenic Scholarship. In June she was awarded a Founders' Memorial Scholarship by the Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation.

Julie's scholarship and extracurricular participation are impressive. "Being president of Beta Omicron chapter however, is the most rewarding thing I've ever done," she said.

The most important thing Julie said she has learned is that it takes a different kind of leadership to serve people and live with them at the same time. "It's a 24 hour a day job. I get to know everyone on a much more personal level." Housemother Mrs. Moeller said, "Julie is way above average in her ability to get along with people."

INDIANA

Dr. Frank Hrisomalos of Bloomington, IN, is someone special to the Beta Thetas. He is not only special in a professional way, as he always has time in his working day for a Theta, but also as a friend.

Dr. Hrisomalos is the father of two Indiana Thetas, Karen and Elain, and the pseudo father of the other eighty girls. He treats us all as if we were his own daughters.

He recently took the senior class out for a pizza dinner, and he bought them all baseball caps with the name of the restaurant on them. He also sent 29 yellow roses in honor of the 29 girls who pledged Theta in January. Every Halloween he sends a huge barrel of candy for the entire house to share.

Dr. Hrisomalos goes out of his way for every Theta in Beta chapter. We all hope that he realizes how special he is to us.

LOUISIANA STATE

Among the many people special to Delta Kappa, one who stands above the rest is Mrs. Hugh O'Connor. Mrs. O'Connor is always willing to lend a helping hand, and she has been an active supporter of Delta Kappa through three daughters' memberships.

She has not only supported the college chapter, but she has also been an asset to the Mothers' Club during her six year membership and service as treasurer.

What else does this special person do? She makes delicious desserts for our annual senior banquet, and is quick to lend a hand in the kitchen during rush.

The O'Connors family has supported the Thetas in other ways, making things possible which otherwise would not be. The O'Connors' generosity made the spring formal possible one year because they donated the use of their country club facilities.

Last year when no place could be found to have a crawfish boil, Mrs. O'Connor opened their home to us. Another time they hosted a slumber party for daughter Karen's class, and the next morning we were treated to Mrs. O'Connor's homemade biscuits.

However, it is not the material things that Mrs. O'Connor and her family have given to Delta Kappa that makes her special to us. It is the love, time and caring she has given us. We are proud to honor Mrs. O'Connor in this way.

MARYLAND

After much planning and scheming, the members of Gamma Mu pulled off a surprise party for a very special Theta, Mrs. Francis Myers, our housemother who is a fifty-year Theta.

It was her birthday—a birthday which she thought had been forgotten by all of us, but little did she know that we had made arrangements with some alumnae to have her taken out to dinner and brought back to the house around 9:30. During this time we decorated the house, set up the food, and waited for her return.

With one foot over the threshold, the lights came on, a shout of "surprise" was heard, and Mrs. Myers was radiating sheer joy and genuine surprise.

Then the party began. We sang "Happy Birthday," danced, talked, ate the cake and danced some more. A Soul Train line was formed, and the birthday girl after much coaxing, joined the dancing.

As a followup, a neighboring fraternity sang a special happy birthday serenade to Mrs. Myers.

OHIO STATE

Susie Beery is a shining example of a special person. She is a 1981 graduating senior from the College of Engineering at Ohio State University. Graduated first in her class with a 3.96 GPA, she received the chapter scholarship pin.

Susie's membership in honoraries include Mortar Board, Chimes, Tau Beta Pi, Alpha Sigma Mu, Phi Eta Sigma, Alpha Lambda Delta, Phi Kappa Phi, and the Ohio State University Fellowship for Graduate School.

Numerous scholarships count the Summa Award, American Society of Metals 2-year award, the Mars G. Fontana outstanding metallurgical senior honor, Battelle Leadership Scholarship. Add to this being an adviser to cheerleaders and a quiet, unassuming demeanor and you have special person Susie Beery. Jennifer Halley

OHIO WESLEYAN

Leslie McLean is a special person at Gamma deuterion. An elementary education major at Ohio Wesleyan, she has maintained a 3.9 grade average, while being an active participant in chapter affairs.

Leslie began her service to Theta as chairman of standards, sports, and the Muscular Dystrophy Superdance. Later she was philanthropy chairman and was elected President of the Panhellenic Council. This year as a senior Leslie will be co-rush chairman, coordinator of the Superdance, chairman of Greek weekend and again, President of Panhellenic.

Leslie's leadership was recognized at the Greek Honors Banquet where she received the Omicron Delta Kappa award. She also received the Bishop's trophy, a top award from the University.

Leslie is dedicated to preparing herself for her future profession in education. She has been a student aid fourteen weeks in an educable mentally retarded classroom as well as working another 10 weeks in a learning disabled classroom.

OKLAHOMA STATE

Although the girls in the house do much to make the Beta Zeta chapter special, without the help of a certain Peggy Porter, that special something might be lost.

Peggy, as she is affectionately called by all the girls, has been the maid at the Oklahoma State chapter house for nine years. Her work includes much more than simply cleaning, however. No matter how busy she is she can always make the time to give a little grandmotherly advice, such as how to dress on those cold Oklahoma days, or what to wear for a special date. When Dana Boyd was in the hospital, the first get-well card she received was from Peggy.

A Stillwater resident for 19 years she lives with her husband and has raised three boys, one serving with the Navy in Japan. She took a sewing class last summer, so that the things she makes for her grandchildren will have a more professional finish.

About her job at the Theta house, Mrs. Porter says, "It's a great pleasure to have been associated with the Thetas through the years. They are the finest group of young women you will ever have the pleasure to meet, and I love them all dearly."

As for the chapter: "Peggy's the greatest. We wouldn't know what to do without her. She really cares about each one of us individually and we love her and think she is a very special person."

Last spring, Beth Kleen and Kelly Fox were chosen outstanding Thetas by the Beta Epsilon chapter. With their steadfast work and many accomplishments, these girls have both contributed much to Beta Epsilon.

Both Beth and Kelly have done a great deal to inspire the chapter. Sophomore Kelly Fox received the Harriet Turner Award, which is given to an outstanding pledge. Kelly was involved in Pi Sigma Epsilon, a marketing fraternity, and Beta Gamma Sigma, a business honorary. While maintaining her own high grades, Kelly has been an excellent scholarship chairman and was selected for Cardinal Key.

Our second special person, Beth Kleen, was given the Franny Lou Healy Award for a senior. Beth has devoted many hours of work to Theta throughout her four years at Beta Epsilon, serving as Junior Panhellenic representative, scholarship chairman and vice-president, efficiency. Beth lets her personality shine through in skits and house activities.

Beth and Kelly were elected to their honors by the chapter. The awards were created with funds which were contributed to the chapter in 1979. Leslie Leeper

PITTSBURGH

The Alpha Omega Thetas at the University of Pittsburgh would be lost without our favorite houseguest, Christina Bradley. Our cook, affectionately known as "Chris," has been a standby at the Theta house for seven delicious years, serving sisters and their guests who have heard about the fantastic meals at the Theta house.

In addition to regular dinner each day, Chris prepares banquet meals for special occasions, and everyone anxiously awaits the sound of the dinner bell.

Christina lives by herself in Pittsburgh, where her family also lives. She is a very busy lady between being a friend to the Thetas and playing the organ each Sunday morning at Avery Memorial Church.

The Alpha Omega chapter loves Chris not only for her cooking but also as a confidante with whom we can discuss problems. She is always a willing listener.

SOUTH DAKOTA

She has a daughter, daughter-in-law, and granddaughter who are members of Alpha Rho, and she has been part of the Theta family for more than 17 years. Her name is Marian Green, and she became Alpha Rho's housemother in May, 1964.

As housemother she is always available to open the kitchen, let in the plumber, meet your parents, or latest date. Not only that but she can keep up to date on your favorite soap opera, help you hem a dress, or let you watch your television show on her TV. In between shopping for food, washing linens, and calling repairmen, she finds time to attend football games, plays, concerts, anything that Thetas are involved in. She has even been at Theta formals.

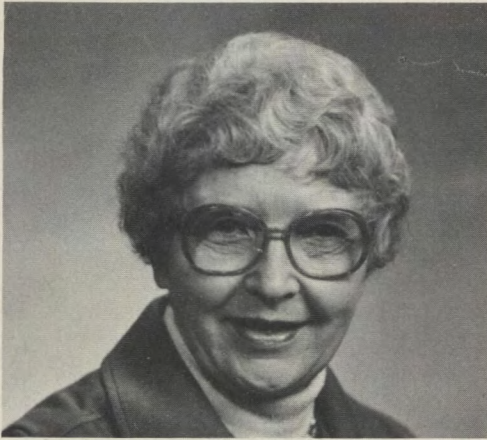

She proves invaluable when it comes to organizing homecoming brunches, Christmas teas, graduation receptions and sewing Strollers costumes.

Known as Mrs. Green, MG or even grandma, our housemother can remember the names of more Alpha Rho alumnae than most members, and can usually tell you where they are and what they're doing. Each spring MG spends hours sewing beautiful black and gold jewelry cases for each member. She also makes pansy centerpieces for decoration in the dining room.

Although she dedicates countless hours to Alpha Rho, she also finds time for outside interests. She has lived in Vermillion all her life and is active in community extension clubs, church groups, bridge club, PEO and the campus housemothers organization. In the summer, she travels abroad with University and church tours. She also visits her children and grandchildren, but is always back at USD in time to get the house ready for fall rush in August.

Alpha Rho is fortunate to have a woman with such experience and love for Theta who has remained with us for so long. Sometimes we don't always show our appreciation, but she knows how much we care. I'm fortunate too, to have her as my grandma.

TEXAS CHRISTIAN

Energetic, inspiring and enthusiastic are some of the adjectives that describe Gamma Psi's Cheryl Huff. She has been a driving force both within the chapter and the university. A list of honors, including Greek Woman of the Year, Mortar Board, Chairperson of Forums Committee, and Vice-President of the student body, have earned her and Gamma Psi chapter recognition on the TCU campus.

I loved TCU from the very first day I set foot on campus," Cheryl said. "I'm already looking for purple dresses so that I can be a good alumna." But before concentrating on being a good alumna, Cheryl has certainly concentrated on being a good undergraduate. As a freshman she chaired the Forums Committee, a job involving scheduling guest lecturers, greeting them at the airport and taking them to their hotel. "There was only one time I can remember that I had reservations about meeting a guest speaker and that was the 'Amazing Kreskin'" Cheryl recalls. "I didn't believe in his powers, but I was afraid that he might be able to read my mind and know that I didn't believe in him."

Last summer, Cheryl was an Orientation Counselor at TCU, chosen after a series of interviews, and selected on the basis of personality, leadership and grades.

For the chapter this past year, Cheryl has been co-rush and co-intramurals chairman. Both areas have had one of their most successful years ever.

Cheryl is presently studying for her LSA's. She plans to go to law school after earning her business degree at TC. "Theta has been one of the most important aspects of my college life. I have watched the Gamma Psi chapter grow to be number one on campus—it is going to be hard to leave."

STANFORD

Who is important to our chapter, our house director? We don't have a house director. We don't even have a house. At Stanford, sororities are not recognized University organizations.

In 1944 sororities were banned from campus and it was not until 1977 that they were to return. In the past few years, Thetas, and five other sororities, have been fighting for University recognition. At the same time, we, of Phi deutron, have been working very hard to build a strong foundation for our chapter.

It has not been easy, but we have received a great deal of support from our local alumnae—support without which we might not have been able to survive. The alumnae have helped guide us in the day to day operations of the chapter, have taught us the rituals and traditions of Kappa Alpha Theta, and have given us endless moral support. They continually show us what it means to be part of a national fraternal organization.

Because sororities are not recognized at Stanford, we cannot hold any functions (including rush) on campus. The alumnae and their families have been kind enough to open their homes to us not only for rush, but for formal pledging, initiation, and other activities as well. They have even been so generous as to transport the rushees between campus and rush parties.

They have done much for us. They have cooked meals for us on special occasions, and they have sent us care packages when our spirits have been low (during finals week, of course). They have done more than anyone could ever ask.

How can we properly thank them? They are so precious to us. Their warmth has made each one of us feel special and important. Their continued enthusiasm has shown us the true meaning of "Theta for a lifetime."

If in the years to come, we, of Phi deutron, can give new, young Thetas just a piece of the love our alumnae have given us, we will be able to spread a great deal of joy. We have been shown what it means to be a Theta. Soon it will be our turn to show others. Thanks to our alumnae, we will be ready.

WESTERN ONTARIO

Maureen Monaghan is a Theta who is special to our chapter, Gamma Epsilon.

Maureen lives in Toronto and attended high school there. She began her university career in Ann Arbor, MI, where she was initiated into Eta chapter in 1978 and began her interest in fraternities. Her second year she transferred to Western Ontario and became an active member of Gamma Epsilon. She has one more year to complete her studies in psychology.

Maureen became very active in our chapter, becoming a member of the standards committee and serving as social chairman. Maureen organized many activities and photographed them.

We are very proud of Maureen's election to the Presidency of the I.F.C. This campus organization is the Interfraternity Council which has representatives from all seven men's fraternities and three women's fraternities. The two major activities for which the Council is responsible are Greek Week and the dance-a-thon for Multiple Sclerosis. The council also maintains good relations among the fraternities and organizes various sporting events. Maureen's election as president of the council is particularly noteworthy as she is the first woman to hold the office at Western. Maureen is a dedicated worker for Theta. She is a very warm and friendly person and is someone special in our chapter.

WASHINGTON

Interest, involvement, and inspirational all describe this special Theta who has been so respected and admired by the Alpha Lambda chapter. Mary Ramage, a native of Spokane, came to Seattle to attend the "U" and when she went through rush "immediately fell in love with the Thetas." She was soon involved as a pledge and successfully coordinated the Phon-a-Thon held with the Fijis. Mary was scholarship chairman the next year, making the most of that office. As a junior Mary was president of Alpha Lambda, and achieved her goal of a smooth-running chapter. As a senior she held another major office, rush chairman. Her organizational ability and experience were important factors in our very successful rush.

Theta's are not the only ones to recognize Mary's outstanding qualities and capabilities; she was awarded the Panhellenic scholarship, a financial boost for her senior year. Mary Ramage will be missed around the Theta house at Washington but wherever she lives, Theta will be an important part of her life.

WHITMAN

Fourteen years ago, Mrs. John Condor (also known as "Tink") moved to Walla Walla and since that time, she has become a very important person to Thetas at Whitman College. An Alpha Nu Theta at the University of Montana, Tink has held the offices of House Corporation President and Treasurer.

Tink is currently the Rush Advisor to Delta Delta and in this capacity, she acts as a stabilizing and guiding force. She makes a special effort to get to know all the members and her great vitality and dedication are equally appreciated.

After many years of involvement with the chapter, Tink continues to enjoy working with and knowing Delta Delta Thetas. She accompanied the Thetas at this year's rush retreat, camping out with the rest of the girls at the school cabin. Tink Condor's enthusiasm and undying spirit add much to the chapter and Thetas at Whitman are grateful for her many contributions.

WISCONSIN

Being away from home is sometimes hard, but living here at the Theta house has made college a lot easier. One big reason is our housemother, who makes this house more like a home. Mrs. Doris Hoopman is a super "Mom" and we are all very lucky to have her living with us.

Mrs. Hoopman has been with us for two years, doing many special things for the Thetas—planning menus, shopping, and keeping our household working and running efficiently.

Mrs. Hoopman is a whiz in the kitchen. We know, because we have had the pleasure of sampling a few of her elegant dishes. Sunday mornings we have fabulous brunches, turned out by Mrs. Hoopman.

Along with the routine activities, Mrs. Hoopman spends a lot of time just being a sweet, caring person. She lends her car to stranded Thetas. Her apartment is always open for visiting and she takes in a movie now and then with the Thetas.

Mrs. Hoopman makes living at the Theta house a pleasure. Thank you Mrs. Hoopman, you're the best!

Thinking On Her Feet

When a college student jogs, does exercises, and participates in weight training five days a week during the school year, you can assume she is either a fitness nut, trying to lose weight, or an athlete. For Diane McGimpsey, Beta Lambda, it's definitely the latter. Her sport? Fencing.

A member of the varsity women's team at the College of William and Mary, Diane helped her team this year to win the Virginia regionals in women's fencing. Diane placed first in individual competition, taking the state championship. "Fencing is not purely a physical sport," Diane says. "It requires lots of mental processes." She specializes in the foil.

WOMEN, DESIGN, AND THE CAMBRIDGE SCHOOL—A History of the Smith College Graduate School of Architecture and Landscape Architecture in Cambridge, by Dorothy May Anderson, Alpha Sigma, PDA Publishers Corp., Lafayette, IN.

This recent book, a history of Smith College Graduate School of Landscape Architecture is by Dorothy May Anderson, Alpha Sigma, 1921, Washington State University, who had her graduate training at the Cambridge School in its early years and later taught landscape architecture at Smith College.

This publication is directed principally toward architects, landscape architects, designers and engineers and covers the period from 1915 to 1942 when women first were struggling to be accepted by this particular professional world then dominated by men.

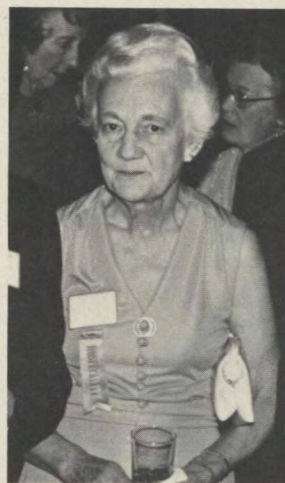

It is compiled from the author's personal experience as well as her well-researched, authoritative source material. Extremely readable and well-illustrated with photographs of many people involved, the book appeals to the lay person as well. Although it is formally dedicated to the women who studied at the Cambridge School, it is a sympathetic biography of Henry Atherton Frost, the school's director.

It was in answer to a plea for tutoring in the basic principles of architecture and landscape architecture by first one young woman and later five others in 1915-16 that Frost, then a young architect at Harvard, founded the school. (Harvard, itself, could not legally admit women at that time.)

Frost, assisted by the landscape architect, Bremer W. Pond, his associate, held the first sessions in their offices, and Harvard men had great fun calling the endeavor "The Frost and Pond Day Nursery."

From these small beginnings, the school grew in reputation and enrollment though it suffered from perennial lack of funds. The women students themselves proved to be hard-working and equal to the most tedious and difficult tasks in the drafting room and the field. However, because the school had neither the endowment nor the large enrollment required to qualify as a chartered independent graduate school empowered to grant academic degrees, it could only give out certificates to its graduates for their three years of work. Eventually it became prudent to form an alliance with a recognized institution with accreditation. But which institution would it be?

Finally through the professional friendship of Frost and William Allan Neilson, president of Smith College, who also enthusiastically supported this area of study for women, the Cambridge School was accepted by

Dorothy May Anderson

Smith, becoming an affiliate of Smith with proper credentials to grant Masters' Degrees.

Later, when World War II exerted a tremendous financial burden on all private institutions, Smith College closed its graduate school in Cambridge.

Harvard University then authorized its graduate school of Design to admit women as candidates for the degrees in Architecture and Landscape Architecture.

The book's author, Dorothy May Anderson, or "D. M." as she is often called, was invited by the Committee for Women in Landscape Architecture of the American Society of Landscape Architects to develop this history of the Cambridge School, one of the pioneering graduate schools for women in professional fields.

Dorothy May enrolled first in landscape architecture at Washington State University. She went east to study at the Cambridge School earning a certificate in landscape architecture. Much later, having satisfied a long-standing undergraduate requirement, she was granted a B.A. degree from WSU in 1941 and a Masters from Smith in 1942. She held a staff position in the Art Department at Smith College together with an appointment as resident landscape architect to redesign the campus. Dorothy May saw service in the wartime map division in the Office of Strategic Services. She later accepted a post war appointment in the Foreign Service, stationed overseas as a geographic attache. In 1953 she began work for the Central Intelligence Agency as a geographic analyst, later as geographic editor.

Now with her book off the press, she says, "I hope to retire for good and forever" and plans to move from her home in Washington, D.C., to either Florida or California.

A QUESTION OF AGE: THE DORM AND I by Kathryn Martin, Gamma deutron, Ohio Wesleyan; Tompson & Rutter Inc., Grantham, NH.

Only the names have been changed, and as the saying goes, "to protect the innocent," in Kathryn Martin's well-told and touching story of her year as a housemother in Wadleigh Junior College for Women in New Hampshire. Wadleigh is not the real name of this school but its proximity to Dartmouth plays a large part in the action, and its identity would probably be easily uncovered by those familiar with the area.

The story is based around the happenings in Bixby Hall, the young women who were sent to this "safe" place by their parents during the year 1969-70, and their housemother, Mrs. Martin. The book is divided into seasons of the school year. Without any real plot, it nevertheless commands your attention from the prologue, which puts into perspective Kathryn Martin's reasons for being at Wadleigh, to the last chapter dealing with graduation and partings.

Bixby Hall was home to 49 girls, many of whom were experiencing their first break from family. They were thrust into immediate freedom, constrained only by the self-government of the dorm, peer pressure and the non-authoritarian presence of Mrs. Martin. This was the generation which mistrusted their government at war, and questioned the values of their elders. Kathryn Martin took on the task in her sixty-first year in an occupation which was soon to become expendable as the in loco parentis responsibility of colleges for students attained historical status.

Become "an invisible woman" was the Dean's advice. In the case of Kathryn Martin, housemother, her invisible days were few. In a year which saw Cambodia, and Kent State, the generation gap could have been a distinguishing feature of the relationship between Mrs. Martin and the girls of Bixby Dorm. Instead the year was marked by a coming together of generations. Kathryn Martin's approach to her job was one of non-interference and an open door policy. The open door to her sitting room was the key to communication, understanding and building trust. In one way it was a sanctuary to those who needed to unburden their problems. Mrs. Martin was an excellent listener. She cared about the girls and they instinctively knew it.

The accessibility to Mrs. Martin's sitting room served another purpose. It became a gathering place for writers of term papers and tutoring sessions for students of literature. Kathryn Martin was a jewel among housemothers if for no other reason than having taught English for 23 years, and having published a novel and two poetry anthologies.

Just because Wadleigh is a college for women does not mean that the residents of Bixby Hall were without male company. Bixby had a great attraction for the boys who seemed to be all over the place at all times . . . except in the girl's rooms. As spring arrived, even this barrier was removed (on a trial basis), as the college permitted some experimentation with limited parietal visiting. Yes, the boys play a prominent part in many of the anecdotes that fill this book with humor and insight. If all housemothers were like Kathryn Martin, no administrator in his right mind would have phased them out.

Jane Gallup, editor

Maggie Crum, Upsilon—she cooks and writes about it.

Food Editor Shares Original Recipe

As Editor and Publisher printed when the International Newspaper Advertising Executives cited her Contra Costa Times section as one of the 10 best of the year—with a name like Maggie Crum, she just had to become a food editor.

She cooks weekends with Julia Child, James Beard, Craig Claiborne, Jacques Pepin and Simone Beck, and writes about it entertainingly for The Times, a regional daily based in Walnut Creek, CA.

Her cooking contest now in its 16th year draws more than 5000 entries and her Contra Costa Times cookbook sold out its first printing in 12 days.

Maggie Blegen, Upsilon, left the University of Minnesota with a magna cum laude degree, her Phi Beta Kappa key and her Theta kite, bound for the University of Hawaii where she became Editor of Publications and met Phil Crum. When their first baby was four months old, Phil's Del Monte Co. job took them to the Philippines for eight years, followed by six years in Puerto Rico.

Maggie was still chauffeuring children when Phil settled with the company in San Francisco and his family in suburban Moraga.

Here Maggie ("I liked to cook") began first part time and later full time as Food and Entertainment Editor of The Times.

In her Entertainment Editor hat, Maggie reviews more than 100 plays a year and has had some adventures with stars and other celebrity interviews, but her first professional love is writing about food, and cooking it. "Cooking is the fine art that appeals to the greatest number of people," she opines.

So we asked for an original recipe to share with Theta cooks around the world. After some thought she came up with:

CHEESE HERB SOUP

"This is a wonderfully hearty and relatively inexpensive soup, comforting to the soul as well as the stomach."

- 4 large onions
- 6 potatoes
- 2 quarts chicken broth or 2 quarts water and 6 chicken bouillon cubes
- A generous pinch of thyme
- 1 hefty tsp. each, dill seed, tarragon, basil
- 2 cups half and half
- 1 pound sharp Cheddar cheese, grated
- Freshly ground pepper and salt to taste

Peel potatoes and onions and cut into quarters. Cook potatoes and onions in broth to which thyme has been added, until they are very soft. Add the dill, tarragon and basil. Puree all in food blender. (Repeat process 4 or 5 times, taking care not to fill blender to the top. Hold a hot pad over covered blender so hot soup does not spurt up and burn you.) To puree add half and half and grated cheese, pepper and salt to taste. Reheat, adjust seasonings and serve topped by a sprinkle of minced parsley. Serves 6-8.

Lynn Morse, her mother Hope Keller Morse, and grandmother, Merle Smalley Keller, all Lambdas.

Three Generations Attend Lambda Centennial

Family ties within Kappa Alpha Theta are strong, as demonstrated among the generations of the Morse family in Lambda chapter. Lynn Morse of the class of '81 received her B.A. in zoology, and was chapter president.

Hope Keller Morse is Lynn's mother. A 1955 graduate who also received her degree in zoology, she was also chapter president. Today she is a real estate agent in Long Beach, CA.

Merle Smalley Keller is Lynn's maternal grandmother, a 1922 graduate of the University of Vermont who served Lambda as vice president while majoring in Latin and earning a Phi Beta Kappa key. Her home is in Wethersfield, CT.

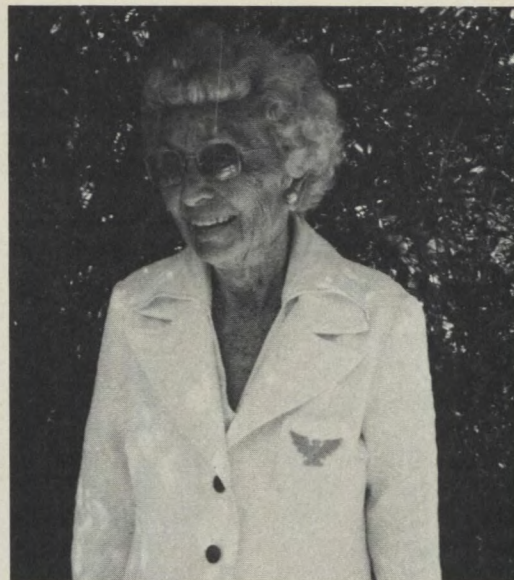

Lynn Morse is fortunate in having two Theta grandmothers. Her paternal grandmother is Julia Ann Housely Morse who was president of Lambda in 1932. She now lives in Sanabel, FL. The four Thetas representing one family and three generations were present at Lambda's 100th Anniversary celebration in April.

Kathleen Surina Grove, Tau, has been named assistant to the consultant on Legal Education to the American Bar Association.

In the newly created position, Kathy will assist in the ABA's accreditation program for law schools. She will help to train and supervise teams who inspect schools, and provide materials and information about accreditation to schools and the legal profession.

She formerly worked at the Indiana Public Defender's Council, a county prosecutor's office and the Indiana Judicial Center.

She was also the first director of the Indianapolis Historic Preservation Commission. Her husband, Jeffrey, is a professor of law at Indiana University and they have two children.

Helen Lowry Ayres, Alpha Mu

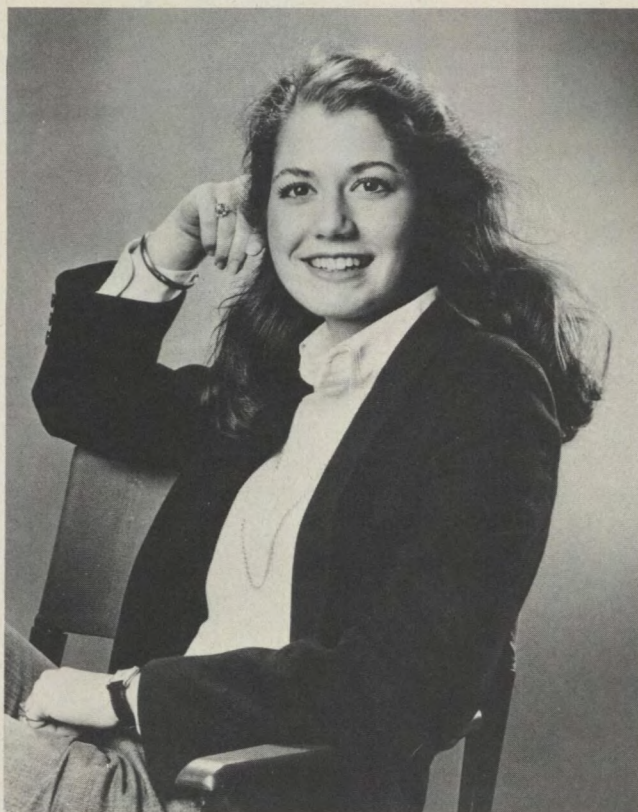

Eucalyptus Named for Her

Southern California owes much of its flowering opulence to Helen Lowry Ayres. Her "Horticultural Safaris" with her husband, Dr. Samuel Ayres, Jr. have yielded flowering trees and new varieties of plants from Africa, Australia, and South America. A member of Alpha Mu chapter at the University of Missouri, Helen Lowry graduated Phi Beta Kappa in 1916 with a degree in Education. The Ayres celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary this year.

In 1939, on a trip to Hawaii, the Ayres noticed many beautiful plants that were not native to the islands. Since then they have nurtured many beautiful plants on their acreage, "Far Horizons," in La Canada. No list of her achievements can adequately convey the varied and productive activities of Helen Ayres. She is a life member of the California Arboretum Foundation, a co-founder of Descanso Gardens Guild in La Canada, the organizer of the local American Red Cross unit during World War II. She has made films of birdlife and gives community talks on the subject. She has developed a species of hybrid Eucalyptus which bears her name. She was instrumental in obtaining billboard control along the Los Angeles freeways. She has received awards and recognition for her efforts at community beautification. She also received the Les Tupper Community Service Award for four decades of horticulture work and for her service work with the Descanso Gardens handicapped children's program.

All Southern Californians can thank Helen Ayres for bringing a bit of far horizons to their streets and gardens. Flintridge-LaCanada Alumnae Club, of which she is an active member, is proud of the remarkable accomplishments of their vibrant lady.

Amy Grant, Alpha Eta, Vanderbilt

Gospel Singer Wins Acclaim

Twenty year old Amy Grant, Alpha Eta chapter, Vanderbilt has been judged the top gospel singer in Contemporary Christian Charts.

While a student and active chapter participant, Amy manages to work in considerable traveling, having performed 50 concerts nation-wide, including national T.V. appearances with Billy Graham in Nashville (Amy works open requests with the Billy Graham Crusade), and the Bill Gaither Trio.

Amy got her first album contract at age 15 and at the present time she has three albums out: 1. Amy Grant, 2. My Fathers Eyes, 3. Never Alone. She is the top female artist in air play and sales for Contemporary Christian Music.

Amy says, "Music has always played an important part in my life, even though I never dreamed I would have the chance to be singing for such large audiences. There always seemed to be music in our home." In high school she wrote her first song, Brand New Start. With encouragement she kept on writing and singing, always on a Christian theme. "What's happened since then seems like a blur sometimes, with more albums and concerts, hotel rooms and busy airports, long nights of bus travel and endless hours of setting up and tearing down the stage. It's been a pretty big change for the little girl who used to be too shy to sing with the lights on."

Young Thetas, Senator's Aids

Working for the Congress of the United States is a unique opportunity to participate in the legislative process. For Thetas Mary Arnold and Chris Zvosec, this experience is made all-the-more illuminating by their energetic boss, Senator Paula Hawkins, Florida.

Mary Arnold is Vice-President of the Gamma Gamma chapter at Rollins College in Senator Hawkins' home town of Winter Park, FL. Politically active on campus and in her own home town of Alexandria, Virginia, Mary found her ideal summer job in working for Florida's newly elected freshman senator. What has impressed her the most, Mary said, is the hard work demanded of senators and staffers alike.

A 1980 graduate of the College of William and Mary and a member of the Beta Lambda chapter, Chris Zvosec has worked for the United States Senate for more than a year. Having worked for a senior midwestern senator prior to joining up with Senator Hawkins, Chris finds her job with the second woman in the Senate an exciting change. It's really exhilarating to work for someone who is not reluctant to scoff at tradition and try to implement her own ideas," Chris says.

Chicago Area Thetas Celebrate Founding

By Lyn Tuttle Ashley

Remember the black dear, remember the gold
Remember the story that's always been told

In keeping with these meaningful words, 200 Thetas from the Chicago area gathered on a sunny morning in mid-January at the Westmoreland Country Club to honor the women who founded Kappa Alpha Theta Fraternity and to greet special guest, Grand President Lissa Bradford.

Alumnæ and the members of Tau chapter at Northwestern heard Lissa Bradford's talk on the realistic facts of today's fraternity and the challenges ahead.

In beginning her remarks, Lissa focused on the specific problems of hazing, vandalism, alcohol and drug abuse on college campuses today which receive widespread publicity when they occur. The Greek system must "rededicate itself to promoting the principles on which it was founded and establish a public image which emphasizes the positive aspects of fraternity life."

Extensive government regulations which affect private organizations have become a pervasive influence and pose a distinct challenge to our fraternity system. Lissa stated, "Between the Department of Labor, the IRS and the Department of Education, Greeks haven't drawn an easy breath in years." This increased burden has necessitated acquiring expensive legal and accounting advice. "We have identified this challenge of government regulation and we are methodically adjusting to each new ruling as it is passed down."

A third challenge to our entire fraternity system is the "vanishing volunteer." Due to the changing women's role in society there are fewer alumnæ available to take on the necessary leadership positions in the fraternity. "Just as the traditional role of women is being altered, so must we adjust by modifying the traditional role of Theta volunteers. Unless we are willing to settle for less than our best effort, changes in our present methods of organization and operation are necessary."

The fourth area of challenge is one which we face daily in our own lives—inflation. Expensive financial burdens are becoming oppressive and realistically there are no more corners to cut. With this in mind, the Loyally in Theta Fund has been created to receive contributions from Theta alumnæ. "Kappa Alpha Theta needs a dramatic response of modest to generous contributions to maintain its position of prominence in the Greek world."

Lissa concluded her remarks optimistically by reminding us that in spite of the many problems and challenges facing us, Kappa Alpha Theta is a strong organization, more dedicated than ever to promoting our fraternity ideals. To confirm this belief, the plans to construct a new national headquarters in Indianapolis were outlined. Our Grand President most emphatically believes that the groups which can "identify and meet these future challenges are the groups that will weather the adversity of the '80's and emerge intact."

The announcement was made of Grand Council appointments of three local Thetas to national positions. New Special Officers are Pat Schutte, appointed Director of Membership Selection; and Pat Frey and Susie Sladoje who are the new co-managers of the Officers' and Leadership Conferences.

Phi Thetas "invade" Washington, D.C.

Washington, D.C. is seeing big government changes this year, and some members of Phi chapter at the University of the Pacific are learning about them first hand.

At the end of May, Cathy Howe, Linda Newland, Vicki Panella and Joan Martin headed to the Capitol for a summer course entitled "Public Policy-Making and Politics." For three weeks they met with congressmen, senators, lobbyists and interviewed them about the United States and its government.

"I'm a special education major," said Cathy, "but I think it's so important to understand how government works, and I'm proud of Phi chapter for having so many girls participating."

After plenty of sightseeing and hard work, the girls were responsible for researching a current issue and giving President Reagan and other leaders their opinions. Topics ranged from nuclear energy to gun control.

Although most of the class returned home, Phi chapter was still well-represented in Washington. Joan Martin stayed to work as a research intern for Congressman Clarence D. Long, Maryland, for the summer. All the girls described their learning experience as "never dull and really worth it," but Joan and Pat also said the experience was "really surprising."

Surprising, because 3,000 miles away from California and home, they met other Thetas. Pat's reaction, "I know now what alumnae mean when they say Theta gives you an instant bond with someone in a strange town. It was a good feeling for both Joan and me."

Joan Martin, Phi editor

Ruth Ann Lyman, Delta Omicron, Alabama, a mental health administrator and psychologist, was named Alabama's Outstanding Young Woman of the Year for 1980. Subsequently she was chosen as one of the Ten Outstanding Young Women of America for 1980. Dr. Lyman has a diverse career as consultant, psychometrist, staff psychologist and chief of the Mental Health Section of the University of Alabama Health Services.

The public relations firm of Buchen, Snell and Company of Phoenix has announced the appointment of Marianne Cole, Beta Delta as an associate. She has a background in publications and recently coordinated public relations and advertising activities for small businesses. She is active in various civic groups and is a docent for the Phoenix Art Museum.

AND THEY'RE OFF!

Every spring the Miami Alumnae Chapter hosts its fund raiser, "Theta Day at the Races."

Members accompanied by family and friends spend an afternoon at a local horse race track, with lunch and small wagering part of the festivities. The track names a race for the fraternity and a Theta representative presents the trophy to the winner of that race.

Proceeds from the sale of tickets to members go to local charities at the discretion of the philanthropy committee. It's a beautiful way to spend a spring afternoon—having fun and helping a local charity at the same time.

Miami Alumnae — Pansy Pals

In an effort to assist collegians in District XVIII, the Miami Alumnae Chapter has begun a "Pansy Pal" program.

The idea is to raise funds to aid a member from the district who is in need of additional funds to complete her education.

Funds were raised by the alumnae chapter with the sale of small Christmas cookbooks (yummy Theta recipes) to members as stocking stuffers. Our district information lessons also played a part in the fund drive. The vice-president wrote to each College District President asking for current information on each of her college chapters. We then had a display for one or two districts per meeting. Each alumna of the featured chapter was recognized. Then the current information about the chapter was read and members present from that district were asked to contribute one penny for every year their college chapter has been in existence. Application forms were sent to each college advisor in November. A committee of alumnae determined who received the award.

The recipient of this year's award was Mary Arnold of Gamma Gamma at Rollins College.

Carol Hartmann Brehman, BH

Kappa Alpha Theta's Grand Council has a new member with years of experience behind her, including former service on Council as a member-at-large. Carol Brehman's election to fill the vacancy created by the retirement of Judy Ruedlinger, will place her again on the College Committee where she previously served two years. She has also been a member of the Finance Committee in the past. Carol Brehman's leadership experience in Theta work goes back to the local level where she held a number of responsible positions in the Philadelphia area during the sixties. She was advisory board chairman for her own chapter, Beta Eta at the University of Pennsylvania, and coordinator for the recommendation boards in the great Philadelphia area. She was appointed college district president of Dist. VI in 1968. She was first elected to Grand Council in 1976. The Brehmans live in Villanova, PA and have one son.

Carol Brehman Returns to Grand Council

New Conference Co-Chairmen Appointed

The arrangements and planning for Theta conferences have become an exercise in coordination. Think of pulling the details of a national meeting together when they involve housing more than 500 people in a dormitory several blocks distance from meeting facilities, and walking another two or three blocks in another direction for meals. Then add the logistics of scheduling small meeting rooms, a large auditorium, a banquet and a recreational event. A job for specialists, and Grand Council has appointed a new "special team" of Conference Co-chairmen to take charge of Officers' Conference and Leadership Conference which occur every two years in June.

Pat Frey, Alpha, DePauw, and Susie Sladoje, Alpha Gamma, Ohio State will share this responsibility. They live in the same neighborhood in Glenview, IL and their Theta activities and community commitments have run a parallel course.

Both Pat Frey and Susie Sladoje served on the Tau Advisory Board at Northwestern. Both women served as president of the Chicago North Shore Alumnae Chapter. Pat held the appointive office of Supervisor of State Chairmen and Permanent Alumnae Secretaries.

Pat and Susie are also members of the Evanston Junior League, working together on community projects.

CAMPUS SIGHTS AND SOUNDS

Prepared by the Operation Brass Tacks Committee of the National Panhellenic Editors' Conference

THE LAWRENCE WELK Foundation has contributed $39,000 to a scholarship in the Music Department of the University of North Dakota.

SUNFLOWERS are being researched by the University of Missouri. The income potential is about the same as soybeans and sunflowers have good drought resistance. An acre of sunflowers yield 75 gallons of oil which compares favorably with diesel fuel.

ARIZONA STATE, the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co., three Indian communities, and a Scottsdale research corporation are working together on a project to develop natural rubber from the guayule plant, a desert shrub native to Mexico and Texas. In the first phase, seedlings will be planted on 500 acres between Phoenix and Tucson.

AN AUSTRALIAN received his Ph.D. from the University of Georgia after "defending" his dissertation via long distance conference call. The telephone unit was equipped with an amplifier and attached to two microphones so that committee members could question the doctoral candidate. The call cost $300 but that was about $3,000 less than it would have cost the Australian to fly to Georgia.

THE SINGSATIONS, a group of vocalists and instrumentalists at the University of Missouri, toured Romania and Bulgaria. During the 22-day tour, they competed against 17 other groups at the International Youth Festival at Primorsko, Bulgaria, and won the Grand Award with jazz, rock, and country-western singing and dancing. The Singsations were the only non-communist group in the competition.

SCIENTISTS at Stanford have found a substitute for agar, a jelly-like substance used in biological laboratories, in canned ham, and in commercial cake frosting. The substitute, costing only one-quarter the price of agar, is a form of carrageen, the substance that gives ice cream and evaporated milk their smooth textures. (Chronicle of Higher Education)

DEPAUW UNIVERSITY offers a new music-business program which includes the regular music curriculum plus a core of courses in economics-management to help students who plan to make music a business career.

"COMPUTER LITERACY" will be required for graduation from Hamline University (Minn.) starting with freshmen entering in the fall of 1982. (Chronicle)

SIX WEST VIRGINIA colleges formed a hostel program offering room and board to travelers last summer.

THE NUMBER OF COURSES offered by colleges and universities increased by an estimated 15% in the past year. Courses in nursing and allied health fields were up 22%, engineering up 20%, and remedial courses were up 22%. (Chronicle)

THE STUDENT CREDIT UNION at the U. of Connecticut has over $1 million in assets, pays 6% on checking accounts and 7% on savings accounts. There are two part-time employees and 140 volunteer student workers. (On-Campus Report)

DUKE UNIVERSITY has compiled a roster of "Carolina Consulting Scientists and Engineers." It lists 300 scientists, engineers, health practitioners and other retired professionals who may be called on for volunteer, part-time, full time work, or consultation in their fields.

A "Y" PROGRAM at the U. of Missouri matches students with residents of a retirement center. The student volunteer spends at least an hour a week with the older resident.

A FRINGE BENEFIT for employees of R. J. Reynolds Industries is a complete college degree program conducted in corporate headquarters in N. C. by High Point College. Employees choose their own courses for the night classes but Reynolds withdraws tuition money if a course is failed.

WHITMAN COLLEGE (Wash.) was one of 10 colleges to receive $150,000 from the Boeing Company in unrestricted funds.

QUIET HOURS are extended at some dorms by Michigan State, and more curbs are imposed on visits from the opposite sex. The school cites student demand for a "more conservative lifestyle." (Wall Street Journal)

AN OUTDOOR EQUIPMENT Rental Center is operated at the U. of California-Irvine. Sleeping bags, backpacks, snowshoes, skis, boots, and fishing equipment may be rented by students, faculty, staff, and alumni association members.

TWO RECENT SURVEYS report that three out of four college students own calculators, half have 10-speed bikes, and six out of 10 own tennis rackets. Blow-dryers are owned by eight out of 10 women and six out of 10 men.

A THREE DAY conference at Cleveland State, co-sponsored by Oregon State and NASA's Lewis Research Center, predicted greatly increased use of windmills—now called wind turbines—in generating electricity. Researchers expect the cost to drop to 4 or 5¢ per kilowatt hour.

A GENE BANK for flowering plants is operated by the University of California-Irvine and specializes in South African plants on the verge of extinction. Many species are thriving in the arboretum's gardens.

TWENTY-ONE COLLEGES in eight states form the American Indian Higher Education consortium. The colleges are operating on or near reservations and enroll 30% non-Indian students. (Chronicle of Higher Education)

A SMALL COMPANY in Minneapolis, the National Credential Verification Service, reports that one in three claims to college degrees that it checks is faked, inflated, or at least slightly misrepresented. Its clients are mostly corporations. (Chronicle)

AMONG COLLEGE WOMEN in the class of 1984, more than one in four plan careers in business, engineering, law, or medicine—a 400% jump since 1966. (U.S. News)

THE FIRST WOMENS' TEAM to enter Indiana University's Little 500 bicycle race failed by 19 seconds to qualify. One team member plans to try again next year. (On-Campus Report)

STANFORD UNIVERSITY pays an annual premium of $480,000 to a group of eight insurance companies for $60 million earthquake coverage.

THE NATIONAL EDUCATION Association found in a recent survey that 37 states have shortages of teachers in some subject areas. The most acute shortages are in math and science teachers with English teachers becoming scarce. The prediction is that the shortages will become critical by 1985.

COLGATE UNIVERSITY is installing a wood-fueled boiler to supply 80% of the university's heat and hot water. Wood scraps are to be purchased from sawmills, furniture manufacturers, and others. A study predicts an annual saving of $250,000.

From Grand Council comes a heartfelt "Thank you" to thousands of Thetas who contributed to the Loyally in Theta Fund. The pleasure expressed by many of you for this opportunity to contribute to the growth and excellence of the fraternity is indicative of the broad support and continuing loyalty of Thetas everywhere. The success of our first attempt to involve all Thetas in helping to retain our position of leadership reinforces our belief that your continued commitment will provide the means for a sound future.

Loyally in Theta,
Lissa Bradford
Grand President

Loyally in Theta Fund

design by Lynda Petrini

Dear Thetas,

When was the last time you had an opportunity to express your loyalty to Kappa Alpha Theta? The Loyally in Theta Fund was created at the 1980 Grand Convention with you in mind.

The price tag for retaining a position of leadership in the Greek community has continued to escalate, while the major burden for payment has remained with our collegiate members. Now, loyal Theta alumnae can help maintain the standards of excellence we all expect of our fraternity and provide the additional resources needed to keep Theta out front. Contributions to the Loyally in Theta Fund will strengthen and enhance the quality of vital fraternity programs and services such as the Traveling Consultant and Resident Counselor programs, the Kappa Alpha Theta Magazine, extension to new campuses, officers' and leadership conferences, manuals, publications and promotional materials.

Thetas enjoy the lifetime privileges of membership with no demands past graduation. There has been no opportunity for some to show their gratitude for precious gifts received. Be it for special times remembered, friends cherished, pride assumed or values instilled, Thetas everywhere can now say "thank you" to Kappa Alpha Theta. A tangible expression of Theta loyalty and gratitude will provide the means for successful growth and a sound future. Let your fraternity know you care.

Loyally in Theta,

Lina Bradford

Grand President

LOYALLY IN THETA FUND

Foundation Funds Resident Counselor Program

The Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation gives tuition grants to graduate students who serve as Resident Counselors to chapters. The purpose of the resident counselor program is to provide for specific chapters and new colonies, a Theta collegian, preferably a graduate student, who has had sufficient experience to serve as a resource officer and adviser to the chapter or, in the case of a colony, to guide the colony during colonization and through the first year as a chapter.

The resident counselor is a friend, a helper, a resource officer, a teacher, a counselor, an adviser, an example of Kappa Alpha Theta, and a very special Theta representative. The Foundation is proud to present the resident counselors for 1981-82.

Mary Boyd is with Beta Lambda at William and Mary this year.

Mary Boyd is the resident counselor this year for William and Mary's Beta Lambda chapter. She not only graduated in three years from Washburn University, but also received departmental honors in history, her major along with French. Other honors include the Dean's Honor Roll and being listed in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, a member of Nonos (a service honorary) and a recipient each year of an academic scholarship. She was also president of Student Union Activities, copy editor of the yearbook, orientation leader, and contributing writer to the college newspaper. Mary also found time to volunteer for the American Cancer Society and Topeka Mental Hospital. She served her chapter in various capacities including editor and fraternity education chairman.

After Mary's graduation in 1980 she was employed as an administrative assistant at the Pasadena YWCA. She has already been accepted at the University of California at Santa Barbara's graduate department of History, but she delayed her enrollment until fall 1982 in order to be a resident counselor. She plans to obtain her masters and doctorate degrees in Modern European History with an emphasis on World War II, so that she can teach at the college level.

When asked about Theta, Mary replied: "Theta ideals and goals are such a constructive, realistic way to guide my life. I think the most positive effect Theta has had on me was the guidance I received with academics during college under Theta ideals. The sorority background gave me such positive reinforcement with scholarship. This is something for which I will always be grateful."

Mary thinks the students at William and Mary are unusually intelligent. She is enjoying learning as much from the women there as she hopes to be teaching them. Her hopes for Beta Lambda are that the members will realize what a truly unique, strong and special group they are and will work this to their advantage. Mary said, "This group of women has the world at its feet and it's only a matter of time before they will be able to reach out and grasp it."

Expressions of gratitude accompany contributions

"I was pleased to be asked to donate to the Loyally in Theta Fund. Perhaps you are aware I was one of Beta Psi's charter members in 1932. I have always followed with interest the Theta activities although I have not been able to participate for some years. Please accept my sincere good wishes in your efforts in this campaign."

"A quick note to you. My daughter no longer resides at her family residence, for she is now married, just starting out, and presently unable to afford to contribute to this fund.

"As her father, I am contributing to the fund, but in her name. I enjoyed her "kite" days (4 years) with Kappa Alpha Theta and the several functions I attended at the house. Keep them flying!"

"It is with great pleasure that my contribution of $100 to the Loyally in Theta Fund can be made in 1981, my 50th year in Kappa Alpha Theta. The many friendships, loyalty and love that have been enjoyed through Theta cannot be measured monetarily, and if they could, two dollars a year would be the bargain of the half century."

"My Theta experience in Beta Lambda chapter at the College of William and Mary, has been a most cherished part of my life. Hoping there will be a great response to the Loyally in Theta Fund, and with my very best regards to my Theta sisters on the Executive Staff, who are making Theta 'tick.'"

"I received a Theta graduate scholarship in 1948 and was able to acquire a Master's Degree at Harvard University in 1951. This is the first of several ways in which I hope to repay Thetas for their help."

Amy West, a Baylor graduate with a bachelor's degree in business journalism, is the resident counselor at Delta Nu, Arkansas. She is beginning work on a master's degree in business at the University of Arkansas. She hopes to work in advertising and public relations. At Baylor she enjoyed working with incoming freshmen as an orientation leader. She said that she spent most of her time with Theta because there was always so much going on! Amy was scholarship chairman and standards chairman and worked with the pledge committee as much as possible. The most exciting moment she could have imagined was receiving the "Outstanding Senior Woman" award at her senior banquet. Amy said, "That meant the most to me since I felt that my chapter knew I had done what I could for them, because they were so special to me!"

Each summer she attended one session of summer school. During the vacation part of her summers she was a church camp counselor.

Amy has high hopes for Delta Nu:

"As a resident counselor at Arkansas I hope I am sharing as much as I am learning! They are a great group and after only a few weeks, I felt as if I had lived there as long as they had. I feel we are off to a good start at Delta Nu. Rush went very well and we have darling pledges. The best part of it all was the chapter attitude during work week and rush. I think that is the real difference between a good chapter and a great one. I hope I can encourage their self-confidence and positive attitude because with a little more of those qualities Delta Nu can grow—from the inside. I am looking forward to helping them become the chapter they want to be."

Amy West, counselor at Arkansas.

Julie Nelson spends the year with Idaho Thetas.

Julie Nelson is the resident counselor at Beta Theta chapter at the University of Idaho. She received her Bachelor of Science degree in Home Economics Education, Textiles and Clothing from North Dakota State University. At the Alpha Pi chapter she was vice-president, rush recommendations chairman and historian. She was elected to the honorary service fraternity for sorority women. This year she is going to school part-time at the University of Idaho, taking classes in home economics. When her year as resident counselor is over, she wants to return to North Dakota and teach. She is enjoying attending meetings of the Moscow Alumnæ Club, and said that she was meeting "many wonderful people." Her interests include traveling, theatre, reading, sewing, needlework, biking and cooking.

Julie is very pleased and honored to be chosen as a resident counselor for 1981-82:

"During my year here in Moscow, I want to develop this chapter's potential. With seventeen great pledges, the girls here have started the year on a high note. I hope that I will be able to guide this chapter to reach its goals. I have developed a good rapport with the Idaho Thetas, so I am confident that they will succeed this year. For the year at hand, my home is Moscow, Idaho, I am a student again, and really looking forward to a terrific year as a resident counselor."

Lynn Edelson works with Maryland Thetas.

Lynn Edelson is the resident counselor at Gamma Mu chapter at the University of Maryland. She attended the University of Connecticut and received a B.A. in Urban Studies. At the University of Maryland she is working on her Master's degree in Urban Studies.

At the University of Connecticut she was vice-president efficiency of the Gamma Zeta chapter and Panhellenic delegate. When she was chairman of the KAΘ Atlanta Awareness Program it received statewide television and newspaper coverage. Lynn served as the university's representative for the Campus Energy Project and went to a national conference in Washington, D.C. She also served an internship at the Capitol Region Council of Governments in Hartford. Throughout college Lynn worked as a market researcher.

Lynn gave some thoughts on Theta, Gamma Mu, and her role as a resident counselor:

"Theta has provided me with energy, inspiration and support as well as a vehicle for achieving more mature womanhood. My pride in this fraternity and in her aims are great. I consider myself fortunate to be a resident counselor. I am lucky to be at the Gamma Mu chapter because the Thetas here are so anxious to keep moving forward. There is a special warmth at #8 Fraternity Row that is unique to Theta. There is a great diversity among the members, yet clearly, there is unity.

I plan to focus on positive sisterhood development, beginning with the pledge program, as this is the way to build strong Thetas for a lifetime. I will encourage continued collegiate-alumnæ interaction. Also I will take part in campus and Greek leadership retreats and work with the faculty and administrators to encourage the continued development of an environment conducive to fraternity stability."

Sally Landrum aids Stetson.

Sally Landrum, a 1981 graduate of the University of Georgia, is serving as resident counselor with Stetson's Epsilon Theta. A Dean's List student, Sally belonged to several educator's associations and volunteered with the YMCA of Georgia. She was named Model Pledge and member of Kappa Delta Epsilon. When she was chapter editor, she received two awards, one for her chapter newsletter and another for an article in the KAΘ Magazine. Last year she served her chapter as housemanager.

Sally reminisced about early Theta recollections:

"Some years ago, I asked my older sister if I could wear her KAΘ jersey. She explained that there was much more than just "wearing" the letters of KAΘ; being able to wear the letters was "earned" so to speak, and certain responsibilities came to those who wore them. Six years later, I pledged myself to the greatest women's fraternity that there could ever be . . . Kappa Alpha Theta. Upon my initiation, my sister presented me with that very same jersey; though a bit faded and torn, I treasure it today.

"During my years at the University of Georgia, I found in Theta challenges and opportunities to broaden my interests, and to develop my skills and talents.

Sally has the special privilege of serving as a resident counselor for a new chapter as it faces its first rush, enjoys being the first on campus with a lodge, and establishes itself on the Stetson campus. Her main focus is being as energetic, inspiring and resourceful as possible while the chapter is setting its goals and establishing roots.

Her future brings more school . . . a master in education. She loves the classroom, but may leave it along the way to work in another education-related field.

Cindy Hill, a cum laude Southern Methodist University graduate is spending this year as resident counselor with the Delta Kappas at Louisiana State University. Cindy's Bachelor of Fine Arts degree had as its major emphasis broadcast and film arts. She served as president of the SMU Student Foundation which produced the seven major campus events. When she was chairman of the Annual Funds Committee, $56,000 was raised for SMU through the Student Telefund. She served Beta Sigma as vice-president efficiency and chaplain.

Her honors received at SMU were numerous: SMU "M" award for outstanding service to the university; SMU National Alumni Scholar, KAΘ District Scholar, Mortar Board; KIRKOS, SMU women's honorary; psychology, communications, leadership and Greek honoraries; and listed in Who's Who in American Colleges. Cindy's special interests include being involved in Christian fellowship groups and public speaking.

After leaving Delta Kappa in May, Cindy will begin work on her Masters in Christian Education. She plans to go into full time Christian work after her education is complete.

Cindy is pleased to be a resident counselor:

"What an honor to be working with such a fantastic group of girls as the Delta Kappas at LSU. These girls share a real, acting commitment to care and to encourage. During my stay this year, I hope to renew this commitment with them as we challenge each other to grow.

Delta Pi chapter at the University of Tennessee has Allison Smith as a resident counselor this year. Allison graduated in speech pathology from Baylor University where she served as house manager for Epsilon Epsilon. She played intramural football, basketball, softball and volleyball, and for two years in a row won the SAE "pig scramble." She received the Student Foundation Scholarship which was based on grade point, leadership and need. She was named to the communications honorary and participated in the all-university sing.

Last year Allison worked in Houston as a speech pathologist for emotionally disturbed children. She is working towards her master's degree in that field at the University of Tennessee. Eventually she would like to work in the Houston Medical Center in her own clinic.

Allison feels fortunate to have been chosen as a resident counselor for many reasons:

"This is a way in which I can repay KAΘ for all the joys and friendships I have had through Theta. Without the financial support from Theta my plans would have been delayed quite a bit. As a resident counselor I will be able to share the pride I feel in being a Theta member. I gained a lot of leadership skills and self-confidence because Thetas believed in me and gave me opportunities to develop those skills. These same Thetas are still supporting me in times of need. I hope I will be able to share this excitement and opportunity for self-development with the girls of Delta Pi."
